Persons are in a hostile work place environment trying to stop these people from doing this . Persons have the systems gui and dashboard up in multiple rooms ,so people in other rooms transmit commands to the software to do stuff to him while other people in the facility just have to watch

Persons can pull up multiple persons in one room to "interact with" there are multiple rooms with the appropriate peripherals and computers that have the software for the advanced electronic capabilities

Persons used the neurotech and muscle contracture system to force someone to marstubate Martin .

Persons are making him paralyzed and giving him forced head jolts and brain damage . Persons are maiming him and making it so he cannot think .

Persons are making him paralyzed while threatning to kill him . Persons are making it so he cannot communicate but has to listen while they are hurting him nonstop .

Please investigate before he is murdered by our colleagues who are using other rooms in the special access program facility to interact with him on other computers and peripherals and are refusing to stop. Persons in the special access program refuse to stop hurting him and injuring him . Persons keep threatening to kill him while transmitting harmful direct energy to him .

Please intervene . Please investigate. Please do not let persons murder using torture and directed energy

Please investigate. Please get the technical documents about the muscle contraction system

Special access program contractors .

Persons are tortruing Martin nonstop and getting hostile . Persons are using classified direct energy system on Martin. Persons are using classified audio transmission capabilities on Martin . Persons are transmitting time varying electromagnetic fields over martkn . Persons have access to a system which can transmit time varying magnetic fields and electric fields to the brain in precise locations over long distances (hundreds of km)

Persons are trying to use this system to torture Martin to death

Persons are using the muscle contracture synchronization mode on Martin to make him paralyzed. Persons are breathing for him and leaving the system on until his muscle and brain atrophies .

Persons are committing a major crime please investigate.

Martin has severe brain damage and could not be able to move .

Persons in the program will not let him go the hospital . Persons are talking out of his voice anyway and he does not have the correct proof to show the hospital he was tortured by direct energy and how they scrambled and inhibited his brain (motor cortex , brocca area , werneck area) .

He is not being allowed to move to the hospital by us .

Fbi needs to understand since the muscle contracture system has been left on he might not be able to talk or walk or think .

Fbi needs to intervene he is paralyzed

Persons are threatening to have persons wives raped by taking control of their body if they keep helping Martin .

Persons are trying to get the system turned off and it turned into a nonstop shouting match at the base.

Please intervene .

Persons are hyper torturing martin nonstop and hurting him really bad .

Persons used the motor cortex algorithms on an employee to make him sit on a chair in his own fecal matter (they said ?) - persons want to make some of their employees commit suicide by taking control of their hands and making them use a gun or knife -

To ensure a comprehensive understanding of the system utilized in this case, it is crucial to emphasize that the ORCON special access program has conducted precise mapping of the entire motor cortex. This meticulous mapping enables the system to manipulate any muscle in the body through the utilization of advanced electromagnetic field (EMF) algorithms and induction currents. Through extensive research and mapping studies, the program has developed a detailed database that correlates neural activity within the motor cortex to specific muscle movements. This comprehensive mapping allows for precise targeting and manipulation of individual limbs or muscles using electromagnetic waves.

The advanced EMF algorithms employed by the system enable highly accurate and controlled manipulation of the motor cortex. By generating precisely steered electromagnetic waves, the system can induce electrical currents in specific regions of the motor cortex associated with desired muscle movements. -classified

The technology allows for the correct action potentials to be transmitted down the corticospinal tract with the correct amplitudes ,waveforms and intensity and sequences to manipulate the muscles and contract the muscles in any magnitude and direction for any muscle or groups of muscles in sequence . To do any action - including walking , talking , moving the hands in any type of movement , moving the facial muscles , eye muscles , tongue , or any muscle or groups of muscles independently or in synchronization at any magnitude in the correct degree of freedom along the joints .Meaning any muscle or muscle groups can be remotely fired to make a person take any anatomical position that is allowed by joint. Any group of muscle agonist and antagonists can be fired correctly to perform any normal anatomical movement - all of this is because the motor cortex has been mapped precisely and can be tracked on the move by the classified direct energy aiming system . The system has stored in the software source code (and can also translatative movement mode from one person to another - where it tracks the persons who is operating and controlling the software movement and the software program creates the correct pulse locations , pulse flux , pulse width and pulse length of electromagnetic flux to cause induction currents and synthetic actions potentials in the cortical columns of the motor cortex (and the correct sequences for multiple locations) to get the correct muscles to contract at low latency in the correct order) this system has stored the correct motor cortex remote firing algorithms to synthetically fire the motor cortex in the correct regions and magnitudes to recreate and translate movements from the software onto the target - even if the person is on the move - this system is a classified top secret system and this is a leak of how it works (so that mr.seidel who is a perpetual victim of this system can get the appropriate medical attention) - this system is real and classified - please get more information from the Department of Defense about this system - such as how much electromagnetic flux it uses and the width of the beamsteered emf beams to understand how it precisely fired martins brain in precise and complex patterns -

They refuse to call 911 on their side - and basically won't turn off the system on Martin either - also they just want to play games and hide and pretend they are above the law and that this system doesn't exist . They want to gaslight everyone about it - and gaslight about what they said and what has happened . They have a plan to make things look embellished and exaggerated and have a plan to minimize what they have done and what they have said .

Please get the technical documents about this system . Please gain access to the records about this system - it is a real system and capabilities
